

DOCUMENT: Attendance Policy	SUBJECT: Attendance Monitoring Policy	Pages: 2
DOCUMENT NO: 1	SUPERSEDES: N/A	ISSUED TO: All Remote Staff hired and/or endorsed by Tytan Teams
DATE OF EFFECTIVITY: After successful onboarding of staff hired	DATE: Last updated in May 2026
This is a controlled document: Should a revision be issued or performed, you are required to ensure all obsolete copies are retrieved and replaced with the updated document.

OBJECTIVE:

To establish clear guidelines for attendance monitoring, shift reporting, and compliance with company attendance policies for all remote staff.

RATIONALE:

To ensure accountability, proper attendance tracking, and timely reporting of work schedules and status updates.

SCOPE:

Applies to all remote staff hired by Tytan Teams

DEFINITION:

PROCEDURES (stages or steps)	PURPOSE (Why we are doing this?)	REQUIRED ACTION (What do we need to do)
All staff are required to clock-in and clock-out via Google Chat during every scheduled shift.	To maintain accurate attendance records, monitor work hours, and ensure accountability during scheduled shifts.	Staff must clock-in and clock-out through Tytan Teams Channel at the start and end of every shift.
Internal staff must submit a Weekly Summary Shift Report to their immediate head every end of work week.	To provide management with a summary of completed tasks, productivity, and shift performance for the week.	Internal staff must prepare and submit a Weekly Summary Shift Report to their immediate supervisor before the end of each work week.
Three (3) consecutive late log-ins or late log-outs are subject to disciplinary action.	To promote punctuality and compliance with work schedules.	Staff must consistently log in and log out on time. Repeated late attendance for three consecutive instances may result in disciplinary action.

Missed day-off status updates are subject to disciplinary action.	To ensure proper scheduling, communication, and workforce monitoring during employee day-offs.	Staff must Day-Off status in Google Chat consequently
Missed time-off status updates are subject to disciplinary action.	To maintain accurate leave tracking and ensure proper communication regarding employee availability.	Staff must also update time off status in Google Chat accordingly

DISCIPLINARY ACTION:

Failure to comply with the attendance and reporting requirements stated in this SOP may result in disciplinary action in accordance with company policy.